

Kenneth G. Swan, MD

“...I can say without hesitation that Dr. Swan is the most stalwart and reliable physicians that I know... He is one of the rare physicians who is known of as a ‘doctor's doctor,’ and as a ‘doctor’s family’s doctor.’”

George J. Hill, MD, DLitt, FACS

Author and Lecturer

Professor of Surgery, Emeritus, New Jersey Medical School

Dr. Swan and Brother Bruce, 1954

Dr. Swan with Son, K.G., 2000

Favorite quote:

“... Chance favors....the prepared mind.”

- Louis Pasteur, 7 Dec 1854

Dr. Swan & 2 other CUMC Drs., 1991

Parachute Camp, AP Hill, VA, 1969

Ken and Betsy Swan

THE SWAN RESEARCH TEAM

Dr. Swan on the greatest challenge he faced in his career and how it helped him to grow as a physician:

“A wounded soldier in Vietnam whom I operated upon and “...saved for what?””

In medicine, our worst nightmare may become our best case.”

Veteran Ken McGarity, saved by Ken Swan, MD, with his daughter

Ken McGarity with Dr. Swan Years Later

Dr. Swan in Vietnam

“Dr. Swan may not be fearless, but he surely has nerves of steel, he is the most determined, unflinching person that I have ever known...Dr. Swan is truly a renaissance man – a Man for All Seasons.”

George J. Hill, MD, DLitt, FACS

Author and Lecturer

Professor of Surgery, Emeritus, New Jersey Medical School

Kenneth G. Swan, MD